Re: Thomas C. Miller/Steve Gartin

Dear Mr. Clyman:

Here are the relevant pleadings in the Gartin v. Miller matter. You have his complaint and the answer. I have also included the complaint for Pugliese v. Miller, which I am told was written by Mr. Gartin. I found it particularly interesting when I saw they both had the wrong middle name for Mr. Miller.

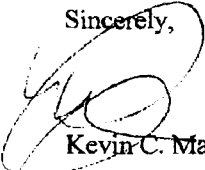

As we discussed, we have consulted with two ethics experts regarding Mr. Miller speaking to you about Mr. Gartin. Both told us that he should not speak without a waiver of privilege from Mr. Gartin, or a judicial determination that privilege had been waived. As Mr. Miller has now been twice sued, he does not also wish to be grieved. So, we will await either a waiver or a judicial determination that privilege has been waived.

Without waiving privilege for Mr. Gartin, I can tell you that we are appalled at the thought of a false pleading being presented to Judge Munsinger. The system breaks down if truth is manipulable.

There is an error in the answer. While the individual in paragraph 2(a) is correctly listed, I now understand that only one of the cases is in El Paso County. You'd find that out, but why not know it now?

I appreciate your patience and professionalism. I think you understand our position at this point. And I certainly understand yours. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Kevin C. Massaro
